
Subject: Re: IDL_MakeStruct floating exception
Posted by Haje Korth on Wed, 19 May 2004 20:31:41 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Sveta,

are you ensuring the variables you are assigning to foo.p and foo.q have the correct type (e.g., IDL_CvtFix)? Are the variables you are assiging really "shorts"? Remember "int" in C corresponds to "long" in IDL. I do not think we can solve this without seeing more of your code.

Cheers,
Haje

"Sveta Shasharina" <sveta@txcorp.com> wrote in message news:2911fc52.0405191033.50c004db@posting.google.com...

> I am trying to run this simple code:
>
> static IDL_STRUCT_TAG_DEF f_tags[] = {
> {"P", 0, (void*) IDL_TYP_INT},
> {"Q", 0,(void*) IDL_TYP_INT},
> {0}
> };
>
> void* s;
> s = IDL_MakeStruct("FOO", f_tags);
>
> And get "Floating point exception..."
>
> What is wrong?
>
> Thanks,
> Sveta Shasharina
