Folks,

For the both of you who have been clamoring for news of my Arctic Ocean cruise and mini-sabbatical, I've posted a couple of pictures on my web page:

<http://www.dfanning.com/sabbatical/sabbatical.html>

I'll be spending the next couple of months with the astronomers at the European Southern Observatory in Munich. I'm not sure how much attention I will be able (or will want to) give to this newsgroup, but I do have a couple of IDL-related projects I hope to work on. And, who knows, I might come back really, really enthused about IDL. :-)

Cheers,

David
