
Subject: JOB -- IDL programmer :: digitalglobe.com
Posted by dmarino on Mon, 13 Sep 2004 14:32:40 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Please consider applying for our IDL programming position!

Details:

Required Experience: 5-10 years software development
Must be proficient in IDL/ENVI programming.
Bachelors' Degree, Masters will be preferred.
Familiar with remote sensing/image processing/GIS

Key Responsibilities:

1. Develop and maintain multi-language Quality Control software for imagery and metadata products. Perform modifications to QC software interfacing with several RDBMS and upstream and downstream production components.
2. Write and implement test plans and procedures.
3. Troubleshoot and resolve problems
4. Contribute to rotating operational support
5. Work with other software engineering groups to identify and improve system software processes.

Technical Knowledge/Skills:

- US Citizen, applicant must be able to attain a Security Clearance.
- Software Development
- IDL/ENVI
- Java (1);C/C++(2);Unix Scripting
- SQL
- Unix
- Distributed systems
- Good process discipline and experience from analysis through test
- Experience in integrating complex applications and databases
- Previous experience with GIS systems, image data processing and other satellite and remote sensing related applications
- Network Management
- Strong technical writing skills
- Web interface development

If interested, send resume, cover, salary req. (electronic preferred)
to:

Peter Mancuso, Production Systems Software Manager, Digitalglobe, Inc.
pmancuso-at-digitalglobe-dot-com
1900 Pike Road
Longmont Colorado 80501

No calls please
No relocation offered.
