
Subject: Re: DLM error

Posted by Haje Korth on Fri, 08 Apr 2005 12:20:14 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brad,

if your DLM routine has keywords, you should be calling IDL_KWFree just before the routine returns. If you don't, unexpected things may happen, even though the IDL API tries to be forgiving at time.

Haje

<b_gom@hotmail.com> wrote in message

news:1112912556.805285.294960@z14g2000cwz.googlegroups.com.. .

> Hello any DLM experts,

>

> Does anybody know what the following error means?

> % Internal error: IDL_KWFree() bad nesting.

>

> I'm obviously doing something wrong in handling keywords, but what > should I be looking for? I don't explicitly call IDL_KWFree()..

>

> Thanks

>

> Brad

>
