
Subject: Re: findfile not recognized

Posted by Benjamin Hornberger on Thu, 21 Jul 2005 14:55:10 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

R.G. Stockwell wrote:

> <amohraz@gmail.com> wrote in message

> news:1121882624.312760.62700@g14g2000cwa.googlegroups.com...

>

>> Thanks a lot for your response, Haje. findfile just doesn't find >> anything, and I have tried specifying the full path. It doesn't work!

>> Thanks for your suggestion on file_search. The problem is I'm using a >> lot of routines that were written by other people and frequently use >> findfile in them, so I would have to modify a lot of files if I were to >> change all of them to file_search.

>> Do you have any ideas as to how to fix this?

>> Many thanks again,

>> Ali

>

>

> A couple of suggestions:

> your filename is almost certainly to blame.

>

> 0) use file_search. Seriously.

>

> 1) To be certain you have the correct path, try to read the tif file

> filename = '/group2/Ali2/071805/6535j2/6535j20001.tif'

You could use

filename = dialog_pickfile()

Then filename must be correct.

Benjamin
