
Subject: Re: Input buffer limits

Posted by bowman on Wed, 14 Jun 1995 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Serdar Manizade <manizade@aol3.wff.nasa.gov> writes:

> I too have hit the ascii buffer input limit. I solved the problem by > changing the problem: i.e. rewrote the input data to use shorter lines.
> Thoroughly unsatisfying. Any other solutions out there?
> serdar.manizade@gsfc.nasa.gov <http://aol16.wff.nasa.gov/~manizade/>

I just got a new IDL newsletter from RSI (V. 5, No. 1). On page 10 it says that in IDL 4.0 the OPEN routine now accepts a BUFSIZE keyword, which lets you set the buffer size. We haven't installed 4.0 yet, so I haven't been able to look at the docs or try it out.

Ken Bowman

--

Dr. Kenneth P. Bowman

409-862-4060

Associate Professor

409-862-4132 fax

Department of Meteorology

bowman@csrp.tamu.edu

Texas A&M University

PP-Glider

College Station, TX 77843-3150
