
Subject: Re: IDL memory limitation?

Posted by David Fanning on Thu, 15 Sep 2005 12:35:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

IDLmastertobe writes:

> Hi, I am trying to visualize some 3D data using IDL and I found when my > data size grow big, the program runs out of memory and won't work.
> Indeed, the data size is not too big yet, it is about 50MB max while some > of my other data could be on the level of few or more GigaBytes in the > future. Does anyone have any idea if IDL has any certain limitations on > memory allocation?

Here is an article that will point you to some reading:

http://www.dfanning.com/fileio_tips/lgfiles.html

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com/>
