

---

Subject: measuring lines

Posted by robin.vandebroek on Tue, 11 Oct 2005 10:25:42 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Hi,

My apologies if this is a trivial problem.

I have a bitmap which is a picture of glass fibers distributed on a flat surface.

The bitmap is already processed so the fibers can be easily distinguished.

Is there a way or a method within IDL to measure the length of the individual fibers apart from programming a scanning algorithm myself ?

Thank you very much in advance.

---