Subject: Re: default plot window size in IDL 6.2 Posted by Haje Korth on Thu, 27 Oct 2005 22:24:42 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We just ran into that problem yesterday. The solution was to disable the "use 1/4 screen" option in the graphics section in the preferences.

Haje

- "Josh Colwell" <joshuacolwell@yahoo.com> wrote in message news:1130449577.083285.89260@g44g2000cwa.googlegroups.com...
- > I'm getting a gigantic plot window opening in direct graphics mode
- > since I upgraded to IDL 6.2. It may be looking at my video size and
- > using half the width or something like that (I have two monitors, so
- > about 3000 pixels effective screen width). Any plot command generates a
- > 1500 pixel wide window. Is there a way to set preferences for a fixed
- > default plot window size?

>