Does anybody have an IDL subroutine that allows for zooming in on geographical regions ?

I want to display some data on top of a map and allow the user to "rubber-band" select a subset of the displayed area.
Once this is done, the display should show a new map covering the smaller (newly selected) area of interest.

Thanks in advance,
Justin.

--
Bureau of Meteorology
Melbourne
Australia