
Subject: Re: Curvefit issues

Posted by Craig Markwardt on Fri, 07 Apr 2006 17:56:47 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Jonathan Wolfe" <vorticitywolfe@gmail.com> writes:

> Thanks Ben,

>

> The /noderivative worked. Wish the manual was a little more explicit > on this function. Thanks again!

Let me toot my own horn here and recommend that you give my MPFIT package a try. It's lots more robust than CURVEFIT. You can drop in MPCURVEFIT as a replacement for CURVEFIT, but there are other fit drivers too.

Craig

See <http://cow.physics.wisc.edu/~craigm/idl/>
under Curve Fitting

--

Craig B. Markwardt, Ph.D. EMAIL: craigmnet@REMOVEcow.physics.wisc.edu
Astrophysics, IDL, Finance, Derivatives | Remove "net" for better response
