
Subject: Re: Regions inside an image

Posted by Jo Klein on Mon, 26 Jun 2006 18:33:52 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

> I have a binary image composed by ones (crop areas) and zeros (other > land-uses). I need to find the bigger crop areas (grater or equal 30 x > 30 pixels).

Hi Jeff,

I think LABEL_REGION will do the job. Have a look at the docs,there's a nice example of how to use LABEL_REGION together with the (in)famous HISTOGRAM to extract the kind of info you want.

Hope this helps,

Jo
