Subject: Re: Query: How to import Color Tables Posted by thompson on Thu, 24 Aug 1995 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

hahn@hrz.th-darmstadt.de (Norbert Hahn) writes:

- > changp@oasys.dt.navy.mil (Peter Chang) wrote:
- >> Hi folks,
- >> The 15 color tables supplied by PV are not enough. I need a color table
- >> named Malachite. I have used this in SpyGlass products. Does anyone know
- >> where I might get such a CT and by what process I could import it to
- >> PV-WAVE. Thanks for any assistance.
- > See description of LOADCT. By default is reads 'colors1.tbl' but you
- > can use the keyword parameter File=<name> to point to any other
- > color table. You may call this private color table. You can also
- > expand colors1.tbl and make is a system wide expansion.

You can also bypass LOADCT altogether and go to TVLCT. All you need to know is the red, green, and blue vectors you want to load.

Bill Thompson