
Subject: Re: WIDGET_MESSAGE keywords?
Posted by rmmoss on Mon, 21 Aug 1995 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In article <19950818.094417.582423.NETNEWS@WVNVN.WVNET.EDU>, mbrown@olie.wvitcoe.wvnet.edu (Myron Brown) writes:
> I am having trouble using keywords with the WIDGET_MESSAGE function. The > manuals do not discuss this function much at all. My code looks like this... > result=WIDGET_CONTROL('File not found'),ERROR
> I get a syntax error for putting the ERROR keyword on it. It works fine > without it (as a warning box.) Any help would be appreciated.
>
> Myron.

That should be

```
result = WIDGET_MESSAGE( 'File not found', /ERROR )
```

The widget_message routine is a function, so all the keywords and parameters have to go inside the parenthesis.

Robert M. Moss, Ph.D.
Texaco Inc.
mossrm@texaco.com

These are not necessarily the views of Texaco Inc.
