
Subject: Re: jpeg text field

Posted by Rick Towler on Tue, 22 Aug 2006 16:42:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In JPEG files metadata is stored as Exchangeable Image File Format aka EXtraInFormation aka EXIF, or in IPTC, or adobe's XMP. There are a number of libraries and programs to manipulate EXIF data so you could either write a .dln or use SPAWN to insert the data after creating the file.

-Rick

greg michael wrote:

> Does anyone know how to embed a text field into a jpeg file? Digital > cameras seem to be able to do it, but in IDL I can only find this kind > of facility for tif-files.
>
> kind regards, > Greg
>
