Oh, oh. On a Friday AND when we are trying to think of Yo Mama jokes... You better hope the beer holds out. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. My web stats suggest the only day it really pays to ask a serious question is on Tuesday. On Friday only a few bozos are left to hold down the fort. And apparently most of them start knocking them back shortly after lunch. :-(
