Folks,

Paul van Delst's arguments yesterday for the utility of PDF books, also known as eBooks, was convincing. So I thought I would give it a try, at least through the end of the year. If this experiment is successful, I can foresee several smaller books on narrower topics in the future. Part of the problem with a large book is the the amount of effort it takes is so daunting. Perhaps biting off smaller chunks would benefit both you and me. :-)

You can find an order form for the book, if you are so inclined, here:

Thanks again for all your support in the past. Books could not be written without all these people asking good questions.

Cheers,

David
