David Fanning wrote: > Folks,
>
> I've recently had to upgrade to IDL 6.3 (I wanted to be > able to read Ronn Kling's Christmas card!). But in reading > it, I've noticed strange behavior for the second time. Is > this something new? Here is the situation.
>
> 1. I install an IDL program that requires several files >   all in the same folder. I create a new folder in my >   working IDL folder for the files.
>
> 2. I change directories to the new folder inside of IDL >   with the CD command.
>
> 3. I try to run the program. It can't find some of the files >   that are in the current directory! :-(
>
> This has GOT to be new behavior! How can it NOT find those > files? I have to put the directory on my path before I can > run the program. Surely this can't be right!?
>
> Anyone have any ideas?
>

Hello,

That is funny. Have you tried PATH_CACHE,/REBUILD?

Ben