
Subject: Re: Image segmentation programs in IDL?
Posted by [Tim\[2\]](#) on Thu, 21 Dec 2006 20:08:37 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thanks!

Label_regions did do the trick. I've been distracted lately, but hope to post my resultant code soon.

Tim

On Dec 21, 8:45 am, "Anne" <anne.mar...@swri.ca> wrote:

> Hi Tim,
> I agree that label regions is probably going to work. The boundary > conditions should be fairly easy to cope with. On first look I would > just create 2 extra copies of the image using the shift command (x and > y direction) and repeat the label regions command. Objects that have > wrapped around will be recombined in the shifted image and it should be > straight forward to identify these.
>
> Anne Martel
> Imaging Research
> Medical Biophysics
> University of Toronto
