> P.S. I can also align the map, but only by moving the > reported corner pixel positions slightly, which I have > no logical reason to do.

Just a wild guess: Could it be that actually not the centres of the corner pixels are reported but their (outer) edges, assuming e.g. the AVHRR nadir resolution of 1.2 km?

Regards,

   Peter