Subject: Re: how to write a K with a hat symbol above
Posted by Christopher Thom on Wed, 16 May 2007 17:37:57 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Quoth David Fanning:

> Klemens writes:
>
>> how can I position a hat symbol above a K (\hat{K} in Latex, when >> writing an axis title ?
>
> I presume you mean IDL, and not Latex, since this is an > IDL newsgroup:
>
>   k_hat = = '!3!sk!r!u^!n'
>
>> Do I need this textoidl library to do this ?
>
> No, of course not. (And I don't think the TexToIDL package does it > anyway.) :-)

Thats right -- textoidl does mostly just greek letter, subscripts and superscripts...it's not a general purpose latex formatting package (although I think many people, myself included, would LOVE to have that functionality!).

cheers
chris