Subject: Re: Exporting rasters from ArcMap 9.1 to ENVI 4.0 Posted by Jean H. on Tue, 16 Oct 2007 16:38:12 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Nuno Vilaï¿1/2a wrote:

- > dear all,
- >
- > i need to export some raster datasets from arcmap 9.1 to envi 4.0. i
- > do this by exporting the raser datasets into a tiff format so that
- > this can be later read by envi.
- > when i open these tiff images in envi, there is simply a white
- > background and no data is visible, just plain white. i tried arcmap
- > 9.2 and the results are the same...
- > can it be a prob with my data??? anyway, i'm just converting a raster
- > to a tiff, no big deal... my raster is no a perfect square, but it has
- > some "less ortodox" borders which are visible in envi, but everything
- > inside the boarders is white, while the outside is black...
- > anyone with the same prob or with an explanation for this???
- > i start wondering if it is not a data prob, but my data works
- > perfectly on arcmap...
- > cheers!!!

>

Nuno,

When you export your data, make sure the data type is set properly... and it should be the same when you open it in Envi (if I remember well, it asks you for this type of info, the first time you open the image in Envi).

Jean