
Subject: Re: how to get pixel data corresponding to some coordinates' points?

Posted by fanxing_gis on Mon, 15 Oct 2007 14:48:16 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

there is an another way to resolve it, overlay your shape file on image in ENVI, then convert the active layer (your shape file) to pointed ROI and then export the ROI to ASCII, here, the pixel row and column numbers corresponding to the shape point could be found in the ASCII file.

regards

fanxing
