Subject: Re: How to export latlongs?
Posted by d.poreh on Sun, 14 Oct 2007 11:57:41 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Oct 13, 7:57 pm, Julio <ju...@cpa.unicamp.br> wrote:
> Hi there!
>
> I have some geotiff images which are being read into an array using > read_tiff.
> I would like to export this array to ascii text files, using this > structure:
>
> latitude, longitude, pixel value
>
> Three columns and 'n' lines, where 'n' is the number of pixels of the > image. So, for each pixel, I have one line with the coords and the > pixel value.
>
> I'm trying to do that using ENVI/IDL. That's a very usual problem...
> Does anybody have some code for that?
>
> Thanks, > Julio

Hi, julio;
what i am gussing that you should do is using this tool:
envi_convert_file_coordinates and finally export your data in .shp file.
ciao