
Subject: Re: is there any IDL code for 6S atmosphere model?

Posted by highstone on Thu, 18 Oct 2007 00:48:24 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Oct 18, 4:28 am, henryg...@gmail.com wrote:

> On Oct 16, 7:32 am, highstone <gaolei...@gmail.com> wrote:

>

>> if is, please tell me where it is ,thank you.

>

> You may want to be more specific.

> Many people may not know what you mean by "6S atmosphere model".

> (Myself, I interpret that to mean "6-stream radiative transfer".)

>

> cheers,

> -henry

6s means

"second_simulation_of_the_satellite_signal_in_the_solar_spectrum", it is a common atmosphere model in remote sensing domain.
