I think this is a brilliant spoof of usenet's leading spammer: the MI5 persecution dude. I read all four of them and laughed out loud during each. This guy actually knows languages though: transliterating from eastern yatiks ain't easy. Furthermore, he is well-read in the area of abnormal psych.

The amount of effort to produce and disseminate this amount of spam is considerable; I hope that he limits the frequency of this form of criticism to annually.
