Subject: Re: New IDL 7.0 Project Problem Posted by Vince Hradil on Fri, 04 Jan 2008 20:44:47 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Jan 4, 2:30 pm, "Ryan." <rchug...@brutus.uwaterloo.ca> wrote:

- >> You can then easily create a project in your workspace. Once you have
- >> the project folder set up, just right-click the project and choose
- >> the Import selection. You can import (copy) files from wherever you like
- >> into the project folder.

>

>> Here is an article that might help explain some things for you:

_

>> http://www.dfanning.com/workbench/overlap.html

>

- > Thanks for the info, it did help clarify things. I've set up a
- > workspace folder on the local disk but I still have the same problem
- > not being able to set up a new project. I really don't know why this
- > is the case. If I can't figure it out I'm going to uninstall it an
- > reinstall IDL 7. If this problem persists, should I contact the
- > people at ITTVIS directly?

>

> Ryan.

Can you make a new IDL project - NOT from a current directory? That is, in your Workspace?

Lives going to suggest the uninetall/re install strategy pays. but

I was going to suggest the uninstall/re-install strategy next - but who likes that hassle?