Employment Opportunity

 Research Systems Inc. has an open trainer/consultant position in the Professional Services Group (PSG). The main responsibilities of this position include creating and teaching the IDL and ENVI training courses and programming IDL and/or ENVI applications.

 PSG is looking for a candidate that is a proficient programmer in either IDL, C or C++, have some teaching experience and be able to travel. IDL and ENVI experience is preferred.

Location: Boulder, Colorado

Company:
    Research Systems Inc. is a pioneering developer of visual data analysis software, offering the IDL and Envi software packages which are used by over 25,000 scientists and engineers around the world. Founded in 1977, Research Systems is a growing, self-funded, profitable, software company, employing about 65 people. We offer a friendly and casual atmosphere, competitive salaries and excellent benefits.

For consideration, please forward your resume mentioning this posting via email or post. Include your availability date, salary requirements, relocation requirements, immigration requirements, etc.

Principals only. Research Systems is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

E-mail: jobs@rsinc.com

Postal address: Human Resources - PSG
          Research Systems, Inc.
          2995 Wilderness Place
          Boulder, CO 80301