
Subject: ISOPHOT wanted

Posted by rsmith on Thu, 11 Apr 1996 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I'm looking for an IDL function similar to the IRAF routine ISOPHOT; basically something that will take a set of points and generate the contour lines connecting equivalent points. This would basically do the same thing that contour does, except it would output the results to an array with finer binning than the input.

Any suggestions?

Thanks in advance,

Randall Smith

rsmith@zardoz.gsfc.nasa.gov
