Austin, Texas Folks,

Hate to use the IDL newsgroup as a substitute for Craig's List, but my son is getting on a plane to fly to Austin Monday morning, and he has just learned his housing arrangements have been given to another person. :-(

Does anyone know of a room to rent near the University for a serious young man doing research on fire ant parasites for about six months . There could be some IDL consulting thrown into the deal, if necessary. :-)

Cheers,

David
