
Subject: Re: Workbench problem following update
Posted by Haje Korth on Tue, 10 Jun 2008 18:48:31 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brian,
I just had a similar problem, where the DE got all messed up. Tech support asked me to delete directory
C:\Documents and Settings\your_user_name\idl\litt\idlworkbench-config-idl70.
This solved the problem.

Cheers,
Haje

"Daft Pict" <brianjmclean@gmail.com> wrote in message
news:4de78804-8f24-46e6-b007-05e8ad24e136@m73g2000hsh.google groups.com...
> Greetings,
> I just allowed the IDL workbench to install an eclipse update to > itself (sorry, I didn't pay too much attention to what it was > installing other than it was a eclipse patch it downloaded overnight).
>
> However, when I restarted IDL I get an empty workbench!
>
> Poking around I find the window-perspective in the menus and open the > IDL perspective which results in an error creating some view and most > of the views reappear. Another problem is that I now get errors > opening the IDL editor.
>
> Is there any easy way (without losing everything I'd already setup) to
> 'reset' the workbench?
>
> -Brian
> ASB/OED/STScI
