Subject: Re: Workbench problem following update Posted by Haje Korth on Tue, 10 Jun 2008 18:48:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brian,

I just had a similar problem, where the DE got all messed up. Tech support asked me to delete directory

 $C:\label{lem:config-idl} C:\label{lem:config-idl} C:\label{lem:config$

This solved the problem.

Cheers,

Haje

>

>

>

- "Daft Pict"

 strianjmclean@gmail.com> wrote in message news:4de78804-8f24-46e6-b007-05e8ad24e136@m73g2000hsh.google groups.com...
- > Greetings,
- > I just allowed the IDL workbench to install an eclipse update to
- > itself (sorry, I didn't pay too much attention to what it was
- > installing other than it was a eclipse patch it downloaded overnight).
- > However, when I restarted IDL I get an empty workbench!

> However, when restar

- > Poking around I find the window-perspective in the menus and open the
- > IDL perspective which results in an error creating some view and most
- > of the views reappear. Another problem is that I now get errors
- > opening the IDL editor.
- > Is there any easy way (without losing everything I'd already setup) to
- > 'reset' the workbench?
- > -Brian
- > ASB/OED/STScl