
Subject: Re: % Program caused arithmetic error: Floating illegal operand
Posted by Vince Hradil on Fri, 08 Aug 2008 21:45:02 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Aug 8, 4:28 pm, "ben.bighair" <ben.bigh...@gmail.com> wrote:

> On Aug 8, 4:07 pm, neon <neo...@gmail.com> wrote:

>

>> Hi,

>> I am having trouble figuring out where this warning message originates >> in my code. I know this message comes when you have NaNs in the data >> that you are manipulating. But the thing is the code i'm dealing with >> is pretty huge and I'm having trouble isolating the cause. Does anyone >> know of a way to figure out the line number where this warning message >> is originating from? It would save me quite a bit of time.

>> Thanks

>> --

>> Nirbhik

>

> Hi,

>

> Try changing the value of the system variable !EXCEPT as described > here:<http://tinyurl.com/6oaha3>

>

> Cheers,

> Ben

This is also in: Window->Preferences...->IDL->Interpreter->Report
floating-point math exceptions->Immediately (2)

But !EXCEPT=2 is a lot shorter 8^)
