
Subject: Re: % Program caused arithmetic error: Floating illegal operand Posted by ben.bighair on Fri, 08 Aug 2008 21:28:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Aug 8, 4:07 pm, neon <neo...@gmail.com> wrote:

> Hi,
> I am having trouble figuring out where this warning message originates > in my code. I know this message comes when you have NaNs in the data > that you are manipulating. But the thing is the code i'm dealing with > is pretty huge and I'm having trouble isolating the cause. Does anyone > know of a way to figure out the line number where this warning message > is originating from? It would save me quite a bit of time.
> Thanks
> --
> Nirbhik

Hi,

Try changing the value of the system variable !EXCEPT as described here: <http://tinyurl.com/6oaha3>

Cheers,
Ben
