
Subject: Re: HDF_VD_WRITE for string data
Posted by David Fanning on Tue, 14 Oct 2008 12:44:28 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brian writes:

> I'm attempting to add string data to VDATA. I've been mixing data > types using the HDF_PACKDATA function (float and long in example > below), but can't get the string type to work. Instead of "Test" I get > a 4 byte value.

I'm guessing that if you applied the String function to those four bytes that the string "Test" would miraculously appear. This is similar to writing secret notes in lemon juice. Hold the blank paper near a flame and your lover's note miraculously appears!!

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com/>
Sepore ma de ni thui. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")
