I hate to tell you this, but... Oh, never mind. Nobody reads the papers we write anyway. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. Let's just say, I've been spending a lot of time with proj4 lately. If ITTVIS was sitting around thinking about what they could do that would be useful to customers, I would recommend incorporating this software into IDL.
Then we could be pretty sure that IDL maps were at least as good as ENVI's, if not better. ;-)
