
Subject: Re: interpolation for resizing

Posted by bryan.s.hong on Wed, 03 Dec 2008 16:17:10 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

> bryan.s.h...@gmail.com writes:
>> Replacing the fill value to a string, for example 'NaN', will exclude >> the pixels when using 'congrid' or 'rebin'.
>
> To a string!? How would that work?
>
> IDL> a = lindgen(5)
> IDL> a[2] = 999
> IDL> l = where(a eq 999)
> IDL> a[l] = 'nan'
> % Type conversion error: Unable to convert given STRING to Long.
> % Detected at: $MAIN$
>
> Cheers,
>
> David
> --
> David Fanning, Ph.D.
> Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
> Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming:<http://www=dfanning.com/>
> Sepore ma de ni thui. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")

Only works in a real array not in a integer array.
