
Subject: Re: correlation between images

Posted by Wout De Nolf on Thu, 02 Apr 2009 16:14:53 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Thu, 2 Apr 2009 07:45:43 -0700 (PDT), Brian Larsen

<balarsen@gmail.com> wrote:

> I got a bit interested on why I wasn't getting how to do this since I > have done this before and found a couple of sites that looked helpful > to me:
>
> <http://local.wasp.uwa.edu.au/~pbourke/miscellaneous/correlation/>
> <http://mulab.physiol.upenn.edu/crosscorrelation.html>

Ok, thanks. I'll have a look.

The KS-test (and co.) is another idea. However I'll have to think about whether it makes sense. Wouldn't it always pass when the images contain the same objects, only in other areas of the image?
