Subject: linear regression between two array with different number of emelemts
Posted by Hu on Mon, 27 Apr 2009 20:58:54 GMT

Hi, folks.

Is there any function in IDL that can calculated linear regression between two arrays with different length (number of elements)?

I mean, I do not want to interpolate the array with less elements to get their relationship.

Thanks