Folks,

Is it just me, or has anyone else noticed that Coyote has apparently gone into business for himself again. Jewelry, from the looks of it. I've filed a restraining order this afternoon, but nothing much has come of it yet.

I guess there was a boatload of this stuff, sitting in the port in Seattle. Coyote picked it up for 10 cents on the dollar. If it's like the last time, he will have spent all the profits on babes by the end of the month, and he will move on to something else, equally loony. Meanwhile, set your spam filters to HIGH. :-(

Cheers,

David
