
Subject: Re: "Program code area full", even when trying to exit!

Posted by pgrigis on Thu, 09 Jul 2009 20:02:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Adam Solomon wrote:

- > Hi,
- >
- > I'm pretty new to IDL, and mostly using it to run routines others have
- > written right now. I'm running a code which plots data, in a way that
- > I'm checking and comparing plots pretty often, so running the plot a
- > few times a minute or so. Pretty often (a few times an hour, I'd say)
- > I get a "Program code area full" error, and most of the time when it
- > happens, I can't even exit IDL! I type in "exit" and get the exact
- > same error.
- >
- > This isn't an issue that other people using this routine have.

I have no idea what that means, but that sounds so like a 1980's error message... Are you by any chance using an ancient version of IDL?

Ciao,
Paolo

- >
 - > Any idea what could be going on?
-