Hi David,

It will be a pleasure having you down under sharing some IDL knowledge with us. WRT to hiking in Canberra, you'll have the Black Mountain next to ANU/CSIRO for early mornings/lunch break/afternoon hikes. For the w/e, a lot of good spots not far from the city such as Namadgi National Park <http://www.australianalps.environment.gov.au/parks/namadgi.html>. I will be happy to show you around.

I'm not very familiar with Melbourne though, but certainly Kosciusko Nat Park is a good option, half way from Melbourne and Canberra.

And the best beer in town (in my opinion) in the Wig & Pen pub.
