Subject: Re: How to set Missing Data Values when writing NETCDF?
Posted by David Fanning on Mon, 19 Oct 2009 14:58:40 GMT

Likun writes:

> I am trying to use the IDL functions to write a netcdf file. However,
> I cannot find how to set a missing value or a valid range for a given > variable. Anyone can help me with that?

These will be attributes of your variable. You can assign them with NCDF_ATTPUT. Just a warning: be ABSOLUTELY sure your missing value (normally the attribute _FillValue) is the same data type as your variable.

   http://www.dfanning.com/fileio_tips/definemode.html

Cheers,

David
--
David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: http://www.dfanning.com/
Sepore ma de ni thui. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")