
Subject: Re: How can we pass Greek symbols and formula to IPLOT?

Posted by d.poreh on Tue, 19 Jan 2010 08:58:59 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Jan 19, 12:49 am, Maarten <maarten.sn...@knmi.nl> wrote:

> On Jan 19, 9:43 am, Dave_Poreh <d.po...@gmail.com> wrote:

>

>> Thank you very much. And a very tiny question: I could not writ >> formula there (in IPLOT). Like: km^2 and

>> Cheers

>

> Use TeXtoIDL. It will work for iPlot as well if you set the direct > graphics device to PS (very much the same as with David's Greek > function).

>

> iplot,findgen(10),xtitle=textoidl('\Omega\alpha km^2 > ln_2'),xtickfont_index=4

>

> Note that the super- and sub-scripts only work for the next character, > and no (unlike TeX), {} won't help.

>

> Maarten

Thank you very much Maarten. Another thing how could we change to

BOLD?

Cheers
