
Subject: Re: PV-WAVE date/time plots
Posted by thompson on Fri, 06 Sep 1996 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

jboia@v2kmail.gsfc.nasa.gov (John J. Boia) writes:

> I'm using PV-WAVE 6.0 to create date/time plots, but I'd like to use an > alternate format than the one PV-WAVE provides. I'd rather my time appear > like this, for example:

>
> |-----|
> | | | |
> 10:00:00 10:20:00 10:40:00
> 09/05/96 09/05/96 09/05/96

> I don't think PV-WAVE allows complicated strings in XTICKFORMAT, so the time > ticks would have to be created as strings and placed appropriately using the > XYOUTS procedure.

> Has anyone written a procedure to do this?

Check out the routine UTPLLOT in the Solar Software Library, at <http://sohowww.nascom.nasa.gov/solarsoft/gen/idl/display/>

Bill Thompson
