On Feb 25, 6:53 am, Lasse Clausen <l...@lbnc.de> wrote:
> Hi there,
>
> I have written a little routine that prints out the usage of routines/> procedures written in IDL on the command line. Like so:
>
> IDL> pri, 'reverse'
> +---+
> Function REVERSE
> Usage:
>   Result = REVERSE(A, SUBSCRIPTIN, OVERWRITE=OVERWRITE)
> Source:
>   /usr/local/itt/idl/lib/reverse.pro
> +---+
>
> or
>
> IDL> pri, 'pri'
> +---+
> Procedure PRI
> Usage:
>   PRI, ROUTINE_NAME, NO_COMPILE=NO_COMPILE, SOURCE_FILE=SOURCE_FILE, > USAGE=USAGE
> Source:
>   /davit/lib/vt/idl/misc/pri.pro
> +---+
>
> I find this routine incredibly helpful as it allows me to check how to > use routines without having to leave the IDL command line.
>
> If you are interested, you can download it here:http://sd-work5.ece.vt.edu/pri.pro
>
> Cheers
> Lasse Clausen

Looks useful, but similar to DOC_LIBRARY?

  -k.