Subject: warping lots of images
Posted by vanessa on Tue, 24 Sep 1996 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We need to be able to easily join transects of aerial video images to a common base using control points eg. end to end or to a map base. Is there software already available based on IDL that can do that in a semi-automated way by clicking on corresponding points in images?

Thanks,
Vanessa Chewings