

---

Subject: Re: pixelwise regression for time series images
Posted by David Fanning on Thu, 13 May 2010 14:48:10 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Bringfried Stecklum writes:

> One can do that without loops. Just write down the regression equations, keeping > in mind that the summation has to be done for the 3rd dimension. Actually this > is what I like about IDL, you can think of bigger entities than just a single > value. I attached a function which works for me.

Looks like we might also need "ima2cube".

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com/>
Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thos speakest truth.")

---