i was looking in Wikipedia, but there is very brief information about DSM.

i haven't any LIDAR data so there is no point cloud. I have only high resolution panchromatic satellite images.

so, to create DSM
i must interpolate the elevation values (for example from DEM) at each point (each pixel) to a grid ?
how define size of grid ?

Where i can see more details about creating DSM ?

Thanks