
Subject: Re: Looking for: IDL-widget routine for spectrosc. Data (Raman/IR)

Posted by Ye Hong on Thu, 17 Oct 1996 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bernhard Riegel wrote:

>
> Has anyone programmed a point&click widget oriented application for Raman/IR > data in IDL?
> I)am a new IDL user and want to programm a routine fpr treating spectroscopical > data. My goal is a powerfull fitting procedure for the spectra, but I want > avoid to create all the standard rotuines for visualization of spectr. data > again. So my question is:
> Has anyone programmed a standard widget IDL application for spectroscopical > data, comparable to xvgr/xmgr (UNIX) or does anyone knows how I can get such an > IDL routine?

Try to enter the command WEXMASTER at the IDL prompt and you will see many widget routines.

--

Ye
